09:00 – 09:40

Opening Keynote Address: Cyber Strategy – A Novel Idea?

Presented by: Craig Rice, Chief Security Officer, Payments UK

The WEF report (January 2017) 'Advancing Cyber Resilience for Boards' identifies several key principles of future cyber resilience:

- Partnership
- Public-private cooperation
- Leadership
- Continual improvement

How will this advice affect Board expectations and impact cyber security strategy when the mantra of collaboration has not yet resulted in substantive capability? This briefing will build upon previous assessments to place cyber defence, security and resilience into a context and framework intended to both provoke debate and capability development.

Half-Day CISO Europe Roundtable

Wednesday, 24 May 2017

Half-Day CISO Europe Roundtable

The idea of the CISO Roundtable is to bring your ideas, thoughts and questions to peers and speakers that you have met during the conference.

This is an intimate event of approximately 30 people held under Chatham House rule – you are free to discuss, take part or just to listen. However, it’s good to know that the more you put into this event, the more you will take away! Notes will be taken throughout the discussions and provided to delegates after the event electronically.

Prior to the roundtable you will be asked to submit 2 or 3 topics that you wish to bring to the table for discussion. Contact Laura McCrave for more information – lmccrave@misti.com or to suggest some topics.

Your thoughts and ideas can also be put to our moderators anonymously.

14th Annual Conference & Roundtable

Evolving and Advancing Information Security Leaders

“Comprehensive and eye opening event for opportunities to promote security as a business empowerment!”

Head of Information Security,
Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange, UAE

“This was the best conference I have attended! The openness and sharing with infosec peers was enlightening and thought provoking.”

Director of IT Audit, Liberty Global Europe

“Excellent for sharing and challenging information and experience with security specialists from different market sectors and countries.”

Head of IT Security Division,
Banque du Liban, Lebanon

“I always come away from the MISTI CISO Roundtables much better informed than when I arrived. Importantly, I am also reminded that the problems I encounter on a day-to-day basis are shared for the most part by my peers. A problem shared is indeed a problem halved!”
